Customer Reviews

This book discuss regional dimensions comprehensively. It helps the reader to determine what factors that create regional growth and the other factors impede the growth. The theories and models that proposed are very actual. It uses formal approach, but it can convert theoretical talks into understandable discussin. That the strength of this book that I love. Also, It provides empirical evidences in some countries. This book very useful for regional researcher in private company, universities, government offices, local governments, or for those who interested to dig deeper regional economy. It will give you enlightenment.
