Making Art From Maps: Inspiration, Techniques, And An International Gallery Of Artists

Synopsis

Journey through the craft of Making Art with Maps. From origami to paper cutting and decoupage, love of paper crafting has soared, and with it the variety of paper types used by artists. Among these are maps - an apt choice for any crafter: they're easy to find, often free, meant to be folded, and their colorful surfaces add an allure of travel to every project. Making Art from Maps is equal parts inspiration and fun. Jill K. Berry, author of Map Art Lab returns, bringing her expertise in maps and her wide-ranging skills as an artist with her. With her cartographic connections, she takes you on a gallery tour, introducing you to the work of some of the most exciting artists creating with maps today. Designer interviews are accompanied by 25 accessible how-to projects of her own design that teach many of the techniques used by the gallery artists.

Customer Reviews

I really loved her first book, which had tips, ideas, projects, and information I could use beyond those projects. This book seemed to be mostly a vehicle for displaying other artists' work that was made with maps. It was nice as a gallery of work but that's not what I was looking for from a book.

great color photographs show what you can do with any type of map. The projects in the book are not very complicated and there are easy to follow instructions. plus they show some creative ways you can use simple map art. If you want inspiration to try more complex projects or wish to see examples of art, there is work from some very creative artist. This is a very nice book.

I received this book as a gift. I am very pleased with it and would highly recommend it. The cover is gorgeous and the art inside, likewise. The book has a beautiful, elegant layout and is well organized. There are 25 inspiring projects, detailed instructions, diagrams and photographs. For even more inspiration there is a outstanding gallery of beautiful art utilizing maps by over 50 artists. I have already made the triangle box for a quick, elegant box for a gift. I look forward to trying more projects soon!
