Synopsis

Buried History of American Music, Songs and Showbiz Since 1606: The Forgotten Originals, Pioneers, and Mega Stars. Part 2. (Final Volume) A must have book; the ultimate reference to America's music treasures, and greatest artists of all time, who are totally forgotten now! Buried History of American Music, Songs and Showbiz Since 1606: The Forgotten Originals, Pioneers, and Mega Stars Showbiz is an unmerciful and ungrateful business. How easy and how fast we forget the yesteryears biggest and greatest names, pioneers and legends of entertainment showbiz, theater, cinema and music. Well, this magnificent book is a tribute to those fabulous artists, who once upon a time, were the most famous people in the world, and now, they are totally forgotten. Finally, you will revisit and rediscover them here in this book that took Maximillien de Lafayette years to write and present it with all the glamour, fame, beauty, and human drama that surrounded the lives and times of those forgotten stars. Thousands of names and hundreds upon hundreds of photos (Rare, vintage, never published before) are lavishly presented in this work. Some of those stars wrote the world most famous tunes, yet, they died, penniless, in absolute poverty and buried in obscurity and drama, because they did not know how to protect their interests. This is a massive work, unparalleled in its depth, research, and wealth of information. It takes us back to the dawn of showbiz, music and songs of America, from the very beginning, from 1606 to the present day. All the biggest names, tunes, shows and productions for almost 300 years of showbiz! Part 2 (Final volume). It includes:
